The Parkway Medical Center emergency department houses 14 private treatment rooms, a pediatric waiting room, and a specifically designed pediatric exam room. Additional, custom-designed OBGYN exam rooms allow for maximum privacy.

Parkway is prepared to manage potential industrial accidents with a large decontamination room for treating chemical exposure.

The site houses Alabama's first accredited Chest Pain Center.

The Community

Located in Morgan County along the banks of the Tennessee River in north-central Alabama, Decatur is just 30 minutes from Huntsville and within an hour drive of Birmingham.

Lakes and woodlands make outdoor recreation a year-round staple of the community.

Decatur also boasts big city conveniences, an excellent school system, and top notch healthcare while maintaining the graciousness of a small southern town.
